

PAPER PRESENTATION AND CONFERENCE E-PROCEEDING AUTHOR GUIDELINES

AUTHORSHIP

- Everyone listed as an author should meet the criteria for authorship. This is all those who:
 1. Made a substantial contribution to the concept or design of the work; or acquisition, analysis, or interpretation of data,
 2. Drafted the article or revised it critically for important intellectual content,
 3. Approved the version to be published,
 4. Each author should have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content.

Authors should meet the conditions of all of the points above.

- Contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship should be mentioned in the Acknowledgments. It is expected that those being acknowledged have given their permission to be named.
- The corresponding author takes responsibility for and speaks on behalf of all authors.
- Changing the author list after the abstract has been accepted requires agreement from all authors.

PAPER ABSTRACT GUIDELINES

1. Abstracts briefly explain the salient aspects of the content.
2. Abstracts should be accurate and succinct, self-contained, and readable.
3. Abstracts should relate only to the paper to be presented.
4. Use our template when writing the abstracts.
5. Abstracts should be written in English with a maximum word count of 250.
6. 3-5 keywords should be added after the abstract.
7. Abstracts should be in soft copy in the form of Portable Document Format (.pdf)

- Submitted paper abstracts are going through a peer review process. The review results will provide consideration to decide whether the abstracts should be accepted, revised, or rejected.

Abstracts should be sent by November 19, 2022, at the latest. At the latest, accepted abstracts will be announced by November 30, 2022.

PAPER PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

- Authors whose abstracts are accepted must present their papers.
- Presentation should be written in English using presentation software, e.g., PowerPoint, Google Slides, etc.
- Submitted presentation file should be in soft copy in the form of Portable Document Format (.pdf) and sent by December 3, 2022, at the latest.
- Each paper presenter has 5 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for questions and answers.

FULL PAPER GUIDELINES

Authors whose abstracts are accepted may continue to write a full paper to be considered for conference e-proceedings. The accepted full paper will be published as a conference e-proceeding.

- The submitted articles should be your original work, that you have the rights to the work, that you are submitting the work for first publication and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere and has not already been published elsewhere, and that you have obtained and can supply all necessary permissions for the reproduction of any copyright works not owned by you.
- Authors must strictly maintain their research originality and avoid plagiarism.
- Use our template when writing the full paper. The article's first page should include the manuscript title, name, and affiliations of all authors, abstract, and keywords.
- Articles should be written in English with a maximum word count of 10,000 (including notes and references).

5. Articles are written in A4 paper, single-spaced, 11-point Candara font for the main text, and single-spaced, 9-point Candara font for the footnotes. One-inch (2.54 cm) margins on all sides and include page numbers in the bottom-right corner of the page.
6. Every succeeding paragraph should be indented.
7. Submitted articles are going through a peer review process. The review results will provide consideration to decide whether the articles should be accepted, revised, or rejected.
8. Figures and tables: a) the caption for a table should appear above the table, left indent; b) the caption for a figure should appear below the graphic, left indent (not center); c) boldface the word "Figure" or "Table" then present the caption in plain text; d) use Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3, dst.) for the associated number of figures/tables; e) font size for table content may be customized as needed (size 9-11); f) reference or explanation should be below the associated table/figure, typed left indent.
9. To reproduce any third-party material in an article, including figures or tables, authors must obtain permission from the copyright holder and comply with any requirements the copyright holder may have to pertain to this reuse. Authors should also include a statement indicating that permission has been obtained in the relevant legend/footnote and provide copies of any relevant paperwork.
10. Citation Style and Bibliography. Refer to the Chicago Manual of Style, 17th Edition (2017) for citation style and bibliography. All submitted articles must include a bibliography of all cited references. For legal documents of a specific country and legal system, any citation of legal documents may refer to other internationally accepted citation style manuals. Author(s) are also allowed to develop their legal citation style apart from those accepted internationally. Once the author(s) subscribe to a particular citation style, all citations and references to any legal documents throughout the article draft should consistently refer to that particular citation style.
